

Wilbur A. Glahn, III

B.A., Trinity College, 1969
J.D., University of Chicago, 1972

Bill Glahn joined the firm in 1981 and has been a director since 1985. After practicing in Boston, Bill served as an Assistant Attorney General and Chief of the Civil Division of the New Hampshire Attorney General's Office from 1975 to 1981. He has chaired the firm's Management Committee, Litigation Department and currently chairs its Business Litigation Group. Bill is admitted to practice in state and federal courts in New Hampshire and Massachusetts, the First Circuit Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Bill has an active trial practice in state and federal courts, focusing on business and commercial disputes. He has tried cases relating to corporate control, breaches of fiduciary duty, dissenter's rights, business valuation, trade secrets and securities cases, including 10b-5 actions, suits under the New Hampshire Securities Act and broker-dealer disputes. Bill has extensive experience in constitutional litigation and class actions, including being co-lead counsel in a class action challenging the constitutionality of New Hampshire's Interest and Dividends Tax, and co-lead counsel in asbestos property cases.

Bill is recognized in Chambers & Partners as one of New Hampshire's top business litigators and is also included in Best Lawyers In America. He is the Chair of the Business Litigation Section of the New Hampshire Bar Association and serves on the Advisory Committee on Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules Committee for the United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire. He also is a court-appointed mediator in that Court and in the State Superior Courts.

Bill's charitable endeavors currently include the Board of Directors of the New England Legal Foundation, the School Board for the City of Concord, the Manchester Board of Child & Family Services, and the Board of Directors of Main Street Concord, where he is also the Chair of the Economic Development Committee. He has previously served on the boards of numerous civic and charitable organizations, including as a member and Chair of the Board of Trustees of The Derryfield School.

Contact information: Direct dial 603-628-1469; email bill.glahn@mclane.com